Conflicts of Interest?

Did you see the hearing on Capitol Hill the other day? Mark Zuckerberg, the head of Facebook, just admitted under oath that he and his wife donated $400 MILLION DOLLARS to U.S. elections operations. Isn't that a conflict of interest from a private social media company?

It's time for "big social media" to get a shakeup. The monopoly of big tech deciding what we can see or not then bankrolling our elections is unseemly. That's why we started CaucusRoom.com.

We know you're smart and can assess news and post for yourself - you don't need feedback, or us as a filter - so we started CaucusRoom.com exclusively for conservatives. It's a place for conservatives to gather, network and encourage one another.

If you want to connect with your friends and neighbors about politics, there are choices. It's only by utilizing those choices that we can change the current landscape.

CaucusRoom is unique-

- It's only for verified conservatives.
- You can connect with others using live meetings with video and chat.
- Keep up-to-date on the latest unfiltered political news.
- Take action in your community to make a difference

So, try out CaucusRoom.com today! Join the over 30,000 other conservatives who are just like you, looking for something different.

Sincerely,

Matt Knoedler
